Voter Registration Denial Notification

This office has received your Virginia Voter Registration Application. Based on the review conducted by this office, your application has been denied for the following reasons:

Your Voter Registration Application did not:

Provide a valid Residence Address

A new Voter Registration Application is enclosed to give you the opportunity to properly complete, sign, date and return the enclosed application, providing all the required information. "Do not leave any space blank; enter 'NONE' if that answer applies. You may also visit the Virginia Voter Registration Portal website at www.vote.virginia.gov to submit your voter registration application online. The deadline to submit your properly completed voter registration application form is 22 days before a primary or general election and shorter for special elections to fill vacancies.

In most instances, a new voter registration application with all required information will be all that is needed. However, if you believe this denial is in error, you have the right to appeal by completing the enclosed Petition for Appeal and filing it with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. A ten dollar ($10.00) filing fee is required. You must contact the Clerk to determine an accepted method of payment. You must file this appeal with the court within ten days of the date printed on this letter.

If you have any questions about this notification, please call the Office of General Registrar.

Your Voter Registration Application did not:

Provide a valid Residence Address

A new Voter Registration Application is enclosed to give you the opportunity to properly complete, sign, date and return the enclosed application, providing all the required information. "Do not leave any space blank; enter 'NONE' if that answer applies. You may also visit the Virginia Voter Registration Portal website at www.vote.virginia.gov to submit your voter registration application online. The deadline to submit your properly completed voter registration application form is 22 days before a primary or general election and shorter for special elections to fill vacancies.

In most instances, a new voter registration application with all required information will be all that is needed. However, if you believe this denial is in error, you have the right to appeal by completing the enclosed Petition for Appeal and filing it with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. A ten dollar ($10.00) filing fee is required. You must contact the Clerk to determine an accepted method of payment. You must file this appeal with the court within ten days of the date printed on this letter.

If you have any questions about this notification, please call the Office of General Registrar.

The deadline to submit your properly completed voter registration application form is 22 days before a primary or general election and shorter for special elections to fill vacancies.

In most instances, a new voter registration application with all required information will be all that is needed. However, if you believe this denial is in error, you have the right to appeal by completing the enclosed Petition for Appeal and filing it with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. A ten dollar ($10.00) filing fee is required. You must contact the Clerk to determine an accepted method of payment. You must file this appeal with the court within ten days of the date printed on this letter.

Voter Registration Denial Notification

This office has received your Virginia Voter Registration Application. Based on the review conducted by this office, your application has been denied for the following reasons:

Your Voter Registration Application did not:

Provide a valid Residence Address

A new Voter Registration Application is enclosed to give you the opportunity to properly complete, sign, date and return the enclosed application, providing all the required information. "Do not leave any space blank; enter 'NONE' if that answer applies. You may also visit the Virginia Voter Registration Portal website at www.vote.virginia.gov to submit your voter registration application online. The deadline to submit your properly completed voter registration application form is 22 days before a primary or general election and shorter for special elections to fill vacancies.

In most instances, a new voter registration application with all required information will be all that is needed. However, if you believe this denial is in error, you have the right to appeal by completing the enclosed Petition for Appeal and filing it with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. A ten dollar ($10.00) filing fee is required. You must contact the Clerk to determine an accepted method of payment. You must file this appeal with the court within ten days of the date printed on this letter.

If you have any questions about this notification, please call the Office of General Registrar.
